

State Farm Retirees are invited to the

SFEA GOLDTIMERS “QUARTERLY MEETING”
Scheduled for
Thursday, March 4, 10:00 a.m.

Illinois Operations Center
2702 Ireland Grove Road, Bloomington, Ill.

Corporate and Illinois Operations Center retirees and spouses are encouraged to attend Goldtimers Quarterly Meetings to reconnect with State Farm friends, receive updates on other SFEA/Goldtimers activities and enjoy meaningful programs with outstanding local speakers.

In addition to the above:

- ENJOY COMPLIMENTARY REFRESHMENTS AND
- WIN DOOR PRIZES

STEVE STOCKTON, MAYOR OF BLOOMINGTON, IS THE FEATURED SPEAKER AT MARCH 4 MEETING

Following a 31-year career with State Farm, 22 in senior management positions, Steve Stockton took early retirement in 2004 and traded his “Vice President’s” job title for that of “Mr. Mayor.” Steve will share personal insights into his decision to enter the political arena and provide an update on the issues facing the City of Bloomington. A “Q & A session” will follow Steve’s “State of the City” comments, and between the two, you’ll leave the meeting with much better insight into the challenges and opportunities facing our local governmental bodies.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR ATTENDEES

- Retirees should enter the Illinois Operations Center through the west side (security) building entrance (facing Veterans Parkway).
- Be prepared to show SFEA/Lifetime Park Card for identification.
- The meeting is in the cafeteria, just beyond the atrium and escalators.
- Questions? Contact Larry Phillips (662 4757 or LJPhillips@Verizon.net).
