7:30 p.m. at the US Cellular Coliseum

After nearly 20 years of recording and touring, Brooks & Dunn have announced their retirement, but not before one last tour. The Last Rodeo Tour will be making a stop in Bloomington, IL at the US Cellular Coliseum. The duo, consisting of Kix Brooks and Ronnie Dunn, made its debut in 1991 with their first four singles all reaching the top of the U.S. Billboard country music charts. Their debut album, Brand New Man, was released the same year and was certified 6 times multi-platinum by the RIAA. Brooks & Dunn have had more than fifty singles on the country music charts, twenty of which have reached number one. They have recorded ten studio albums, three greatest-hits compilations, and a Christmas album. Brooks & Dunn also won the Country Music Association Duo of the Year award every year between 1992 and 2006, except for 2000. In addition, Brooks & Dunn won the Entertainer of the Year award in 1996.
