

LINCOLN CIRCUIT TOUR

WEDNESDAY, MAY 8, 2019

$55 per person

We are pleased to sponsor an Eastern Lincoln Circuit Tour. Enjoy the sights and insights of our host local attorney and Lincoln scholar, Guy Fraker, as we travel the road Lincoln traveled. Traveling from marker to marker creates a sense of what it was like to travel these roads during the time of Lincoln and his contemporaries. Though row crops have replaced the prairie, one still feels the seemingly endless miles, the gentle roll of the land, and the serene flow of its streams. It is essentially the same place where Abraham Lincoln grew from a callow, newly initiated attorney to a seasoned professional with the qualities that our nation demanded. The markers and their roads re-create the central Illinois of that day; traveling these roads between markers creates a sense of the place that these men traversed so long ago. On this tour we will visit Clinton, Monticello, Urbana, Danville and Mahomet - in the order that the circuit riders traveled from county to county from 1847 to 1853.
