Course Information

Waterville Golf Club is majestically set on the beautiful Ring of Kerry and is one of Ireland's premier golf courses. Its signature par three 17th hole, named "Mulcahy's Peak", starts from a tee shot that is 250 feet above sea level and will leave you with an unforgettable memory of this amazing links course. (Electric carts available)

Tralee Golf Course is a tough but fair test of golf containing some of the best views of the sea and wild sand dunes. This unique links is destined to be one of the finest golf courses in Ireland, if not the world. The back nine holes are some of the best you will ever find. (Electric carts available with medical letter)

The Old Course at Ballybunion Golf Club is a true seaside links course and upon playing it for the first time you may think the game of golf originated here. It is a course you will always enjoy and never tire of playing. The Old Course at Ballybunion is simply a true test of golf and what golf should be.

Old Head is situated on a 220 acre diamond-shaped area that extends two miles out into the Atlantic Ocean. Located on the southern tip of Ireland, it is both remote and still accessible. One of the phrases that is heard from many players is that they feel as if they are on the "edge of the world." Old Head has been named one of the most beautiful golf courses in the world by the PGA advisory board who said "Old Head Golf Links sits on possibly the single prettiest piece of property in the world. The golf course will test you but the scenery will move you." (Electric carts available)
